

SCHOLARSHIPS

The IFMA Educational Foundation provides significant funding to students in the areas of culinary, food science and food marketing. Partnerships with some of the nation's leading colleges and universities have resulted in the awarding of $5,000 scholarships to students from top schools across the country.

The Foundation's self-sustaining fund ensures that 100 percent of your donated dollars goes to funding scholarships - and how many other 501 (c)(3) organizations are able to say that!
